

Course name	Current Topics in Disability Sciences
Course Number	CE12101
Credits	1.0
Year	1-4
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall BC Thrus 6
Instructor	Hisae MIYAUCHI Kamal LAMICHHANE, and Ee Rea HONG
Course overview	This course aims to provide a broader picture on disability sciences by covering topics from basic information to the latest research findings relating to social welfare, special education in Japan and around the world
Remarks
Teaching method	Lecture
Attainment target	Understand the broader picture on disability sciences through lectures and discussions
Teaching schedule	In the lecture, we will discuss topics including: prospectives in disability, medical vs social model of disability, investment approach in disability, inclusive education, UN convention on the rights of persons with disabilities, independent living, community based rehabilitation, and current issues in special education
Course conditions
Evaluation	Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance, class participation, and assignments
Homework	Students are expected to read through the given handouts and be prepared to participate in class discussions
Text Book	Handouts are provided. More information will be given in the first lesson
Reference
Office hours
Expectation for student	Students are expected to be prepared to participate in class discussions
Keywords	