

Course name	Understanding and Support for children with Multiple Disabilities
Course Number	CE26031
Credits	1.0
Year	3
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall AB Tue 4
Instructor	Kennosuke KAWAMA , Tsuyoshi SASHIMA
Course overview	This course will discuss the significance and outline of teaching of children with multiple disabilities. In addition, the course will also study a joint approach by associated organizations in association with medical care.
Remarks	The course corresponds to the Teaching Method of Education for Children with Multiple Disabilities in FY2012 and earlier.
Teaching method	Lecture
Attainment target	This course will enable students learn more about children with multiple disabilities in physiological and psychological point of view and understand the significance and outline of teaching and supporting of children with multiple disabilities.
Teaching schedule	Day 1: Definition of multiple disabilities Day 2: Understanding of children with multiple disabilities from physiological and psychological point of view Day 3: Curriculum for children with multiple disabilities Day 4: Classroom management for children with multiple disabilities Day 5: Basic educational program planning Day 6: Practical educational program planning Day 7: Expansion of educational program Day 8: Joint approach by related organizations Day 9: Support after school graduation Day 10: Summary of classes
Course conditions
Evaluation	Evaluation based on the results of small test in the class and semester final examination
Homework
Text Book
Reference
Office hours
Expectation for student
Keywords	Multiple disabilities, medical care