

Course name	Understanding and Support for children with developmental disabilities
Course Number	CE28071
Credits	1.0
Year	3
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall AB Thu 2
Instructor	Keiko KUMAGAI , Shinji OKAZAKI
Course overview	The course will discuss the basic understanding and the latest knowledge about disabilities found in regular class, such as learning disability (LD), attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), and high-functioning autism (HFA), and enable students to study and understand the supporting methods through case study.
Remarks
Teaching method	Lecture
Attainment target	Students will learn about children with developmental disabilities and study the methodology for providing assistance to such children.
Teaching schedule	The course will go as follows. Day 1: Developmental disabilities and the special needs education system Day 2: Understanding of learning disability (LD) Day 3: Learning disability (LD) and development Day 4: Social participation and self-sustaining of learning disability (LD) Day 5: Understanding of attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) Day 6: Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) and development Day 7: Social participation and self-sustaining of attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) Day 8: Understanding of high-functioning autism Day 9: Development of high-functioning autism Day 10: Social participation and self-sustaining of high-functioning autism
Course conditions
Evaluation	Evaluation based on the results of attendance record and reporting assignment during the class.
Homework
Text Book
Reference
Office hours
Expectation for student	Students are expected to exhibit positive attitude and active involvement in training of actual support for children with developmental disabilities discussed in the lecture.
Keywords	Developmental disabilities, special needs education, education to develop one's merits