

Course name	Social Welfare II
Course Number	CE31021
Credits	2.0
Year	2
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall AB Thu 3,4
Instructor	Atsushi OZAWA
Course overview	The course will overview the historical evolution of the social welfare system and its target in Japan and Western countries. It will also discuss the needs and resources in welfare policies and the relations between welfare policies and associated policies.
Remarks	Students should learn the Social Welfare I in advance. The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. Social education supervisor.
Teaching method	Lecture
Attainment target	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students will understand the history of social welfare system by following an example of historical development in the United Kingdom. 2. Students will understand the history of social welfare system in Japan. 3. Students will deepen the understanding of social welfare system through history.
Teaching schedule	Days 1-2: Emergence of poverty and the Poor Law Days 3-4: Social thoughts under the Poor Law and the establishment of new Poor Law Days 5-6: Role of the private welfare sector Days 7-8: The rise of socialism and the significance of poverty research Days 9-10: Conflict over the abolition and advocacy of the Poor Law Days 11-12: Motion of social legislation Days 13-14: Establishment and expansion of the Beveridge system Days 15-16: Expansion of personal social services Days 17-18: Welfare reform in recent years in the UK Days 19-20: (Japan) Social welfare after the Second World War, toward new social welfare
Course conditions
Evaluation	Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of reporting assignment and examination.
Homework
Text Book
Reference
Office hours
Expectation for student	Students are expected to obtain a wide perspective in light of history of social welfare.
Keywords	